Leather

Author's Notes:
I wrote this in June of last year but for some reason never posted it. Well, here it is :)

He's always in jeans. Off stage, on stage, it doesn't matter.

Jeans, jeans, and more jeans.

Except today.

He's wearing leather. Leather pants to be exact. And all I can do is stand there and stare.

Stare at where tight denim hugged his body. Stare at the smooth leather in its place.

Smooth enough to touch, to rub against, to taste.

Taste? Where did that come from?

He's grinning at me, knowing full well what I'm thinking. Twirling around so I see it from every angle.

The bastard.

He saunters off and I'm left alone. Wondering what leather tastes like.
